

In this session, Watchmaker Genomics will showcase a comprehensive portfolio of DNA and RNA library prep solutions optimized for sensitive applications and challenging samples. Featuring streamlined workflows, high-yield enzymatic fragmentation, and automation-ready designs, these solutions improve data accuracy, sequencing economy, and performance in low-input applications. Join us to explore how our innovative enzyme engineering and tailored solutions are addressing the evolving needs of core facilities and sequencing providers to maximize throughput and reduce operational costs.