Do you need guidance, help, or recommendations for issues you might be having in your current position? Are you feeling stuck or wanting to know how to change career direction? Get some advice from not just one mentor, but several! Networking at it's finest - find people who have had industry experience give you suggestions to address your problems and the benefit of their time in the field. Speed mentoring is fast-paced, fun and a great way to meet others.